beed accustomed to look upon the Canadian management of this railway as among the the investigation, but the tone of the report is so partian-like, that the public should be chary of it in the absence of the reply. That that there have been mismanagement and even frands practiced in carrying out some of the railway enterprises of the country, we concede, and Canadian enterprises are not exceptions, but, that they have been as frequent as the public may have been led to believe, we are prepared to successfully deny. It has come to pass that a railway corporation cannot meet with fluencial em-rrassments from what ever cause, arising under the most experienced and faithful management, but the cry of fraud and peculation is raised until the attempt of linancial and managerial railway tasks is taken as a pledge of reputation and character for its ful-fillment. The manner in which the Great Western Railway has sustained itself during the past critical years, and under many very embarrassing circumstances, is good pre-sumptive evidence of able management. We can conceive of one at least of the causes of anxiety of the English shareholders to be the absence of those splendid dividends which they are perhaps as much to blame for

Tan May Quan.-The Detroit steamer May Queen arrived here on Saturday morning. She came through the "South Pasasgo," and reports little fee to obstruct navigation. Her cargo consisted of oats, wheat and flour principalty. She was fired up and probably left last night, as the wind moderated considerably. She carried a full miscellaneous cargo.

On Wednesday evening the schooner Scotland, of Chicago, Capt. Clydesdale, the first sail vessel for the season, arrived here from Cieveland. She loaded last fall at Buffalo, but on account of the lateness of the season, was compelled by bad weather to put in at Cleveland, where she wintered. She left that port last Thursday, but owing to the large quantities of toe she encountered did not reach this place till Wednesday a ternoon. She came up the river under sall, all within a few miles of the city, when the lat.'e Clara took her in tow, and brought her to the Michigan Central dock.
